

FELLOWSHIP OF CHRISTIAN ATHLETES

The Ultimate Impact

I grew up attending a small country church in South Carolina. In church at least three times a week, I learned a lot of the Bible, but unfortunately it was in my head and not my heart.

When I was 17 years old, my Green Sea Floyds High School coach, Tim Renfrow, invited me to FCA Camp at Black Mountain, North Carolina. There, Philadelphia Eagles defensive end Reggie White gave a presentation about having a relationship with Christ, something I immediately knew I didn't have. I accepted Christ that Wednesday night, and my life has never been the same. Now I start every day in the Bible, along with a cup of coffee. God's Word isn't just something I know about; it's transforming my heart and mind.

"Throw off your old sinful nature and your former way of life, which is corrupted by lust and deception. Instead, let the Spirit renew your thoughts and attitudes. Put on your new nature, created to be like God—truly righteous and holy," (Ephesians 4:22-24).

Today, millions of coaches and athletes will step onto a track, mat, court, field or other sporting stage to compete. Some of them may be like I was—they grew up in church, but they don't yet have a personal relationship with God. Others may have never heard the name Jesus Christ. And some may have accepted Him, but they don't have anyone discipling them. This is why FCA exists. We have staff and volunteer leaders all over the world who are sharing the Gospel to make disciples who become disciple-makers.

Our 2021 theme is PURSUE, and together with you, we are in pursuit of seeing coaches and athletes transformed by Christ. How do we know if we're hitting the mark? In some ways, we look at the numbers. We keep careful records about things like how many Bibles are distributed; how many FCA Camps and Huddles are hosted; and how many faith decisions get made so we can steward our resources and gain insight into how God's moving us forward. But we know that numbers don't tell the whole story. It's the stories we hear every day, like those you'll read in this publication, that testify to God's movement throughout FCA.

Someone just like you gave a scholarship that sent me to FCA Camp in 1986 where I became a follower of Christ. I wouldn't be the father, husband, coach and leader I am today if not for that investment and this ministry. I pray every day that more coaches and athletes will come to know Christ, grow in Christ and help others do the same. Thank you for your prayers and investment. Together, we are bringing Jesus to the next generation.

STRATEGY

TO AND THROUGH THE COACH

We pursue our vision and mission through the strategy of ministering "To and Through the Coach." We seek ministry first to coaches' hearts, marriages and families. Then, when ready, we minister through coaches to their fellow coaches, teams and athlete leaders.

METHODS

As FCA matures, we seek to make disciples through our methods of engaging, equipping and empowering coaches and athletes to know and grow in Christ, and lead others to do the same.

See what FCA is all about!

ENGAGE

1 Thessalonians 2:8

We engage relationally by connecting with individuals and through events in many different environments by building genuine trust, sharing our lives and sharing the Gospel. We strive to connect with coaches and athletes where they are on their spiritual journey.

EQUIP

Ephesians 4:12

After cultivating relationships and once coaches and athletes come to faith in Christ, we want to equip them with Christ-centered training, events, resources and ongoing support in what it means to be a follower of Christ, growing in God's Word and applying it to life.

EMPOWER

2 Timothy 2:2

Once equipped, we empower faithful leaders who desire to use their time, talents and treasures to help other coaches and athletes experience the Gospel, grow in their faith and share Christ with others. We desire to develop disciples who make disciples, assisting them so they can in turn engage, equip and empower others to know and grow in Christ, and lead others to do the same.

A YEAR OF

PURSUE

“PURSUE RIGHTEOUSNESS AND A
GODLY LIFE, ALONG WITH FAITH, LOVE,
PERSEVERANCE AND GENTLENESS.”

1 TIMOTHY 6:11

Each year, FCA executive leadership comes to the table to pray, share what coaches and athletes are experiencing, and offer ideas about the ministry's focus for the year ahead. This process often leads to FCA's next annual ministry theme—a word or phrase and key verse that Team FCA rallies around all year.

In 2019, our theme of "Let's Go!" encouraged coaches and athletes to fulfill the Great Commission in Matthew 28:18-20. In 2020, we focused on 100% and challenged one another to love the Lord our God with all our heart, soul, mind and strength (Mark 12:30).

Throughout 2021, we have focused on the theme PURSUE, which comes from 1 Timothy 6:11 where Paul encourages Timothy: "Pursue righteousness and a godly life, along with faith, love, perseverance and gentleness."

Our prayer has been that coaches and athletes will move from uncertainty to confidence as they've pursued Jesus this past year. To narrow our pursuit, we've rallied around four key themes: Pursue Truth, Pursue Life, Pursue Team and Pursue Mission.

PURSUE TRUTH

As we kicked off our year, we focused on encouraging coaches and athletes to pursue truth. We know truth tries to enter our lives using many forms, people and ideas, but we wanted to point coaches and athletes to the One who calls us by name and shows us how truth comes to life.

"I am the way, the truth and the life. No one can come to the Father except through me," (John 14:6).

We challenged coaches and athletes to dig into God's Word by distributing Bibles, sharing verses on social media, resourcing Huddles with Bible study content and more. We also encouraged everyone to sign up for our Daily Impact Play—a morning devotional emailed seven days a week, which has seen a 31% growth in subscribers this past year.

PURSUE LIFE

Part of encouraging coaches and athletes to pursue life involved teaching them to open their hearts to God. We know competitors are wired for life on the field, but they also need an eternal focus. They need to be disciplined in how to savor the rich and satisfying life Christ came to give, and how to face the enemy of our souls who wants to keep us from experiencing God's best for our lives.

"The thief's purpose is to steal and kill and destroy. My purpose is to give them a rich and satisfying life," (John 10:10).

We asked coaches and athletes to consider where their hearts were focused and if their lives were headed in the right direction. To help them walk with Jesus, we offered resources like The CORE, eight easy steps for strengthening faith; and we introduced a miniseries on YouTube called Sport Swap where FCA staff join athletes and coaches from their community for a funny competition outside of comfort zones.

PURSUE TEAM

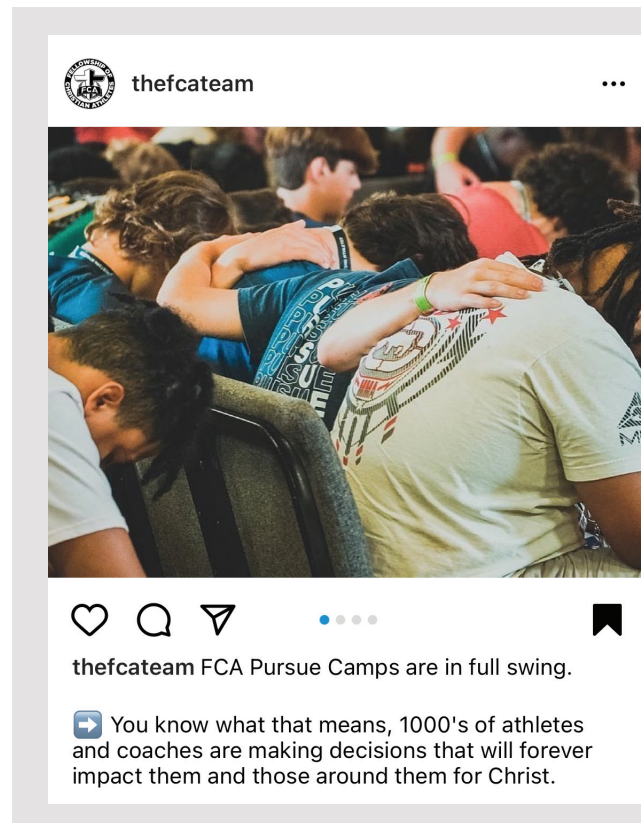

Camp season brought the opportunity to pursue team. The Christian life isn't meant to be lived alone: Iron sharpens iron, and we need each other. Not only do we need teammates who specialize in our individual sports, we need a spiritual team as well. Disciples making disciples is how we grow.

"Let us think of ways to motivate one another to acts of love and good works. And let us not neglect our meeting together, as some people do, but encourage one another, especially now that the day of His return is drawing near," (Hebrews 10:24-25).

Throughout camps and beyond, we asked coaches and athletes about the spiritual coaches in their lives and whom they need on their teams. We also challenged them to consider whom to raise up and mentor, and who can keep them accountable.

FCA's Huddles, 1-on-1s and Camps offer many avenues for coaches and athletes to build their teams, both spiritually and athletically. FCA staff have been called to serve inside of local communities and walk out spiritual journeys with coaches and athletes.

PURSUE MISSION

Now we are looking toward our final months of PURSUE, and we're focused on mission. We believe God has put a unique calling into each person's life. We're exploring how to trust, prepare for and commit to the mission.

"So, my dear brothers and sisters, be strong and immovable. Always work enthusiastically for the Lord, for you know that nothing you do for the Lord is ever useless," (1 Corinthians 15:58).

Pursuing mission isn't only for coaches and athletes, it's for everyone on Team FCA, which includes you—our supporters.

As a faithful financial partner, you have already helped coaches and athletes pursue truth, life and team this past year. Would you help us pursue mission and support coaches and athletes as they discover God's bigger purpose for their lives?

Your giving helps position FCA to start 2022 with resources to strengthen our ministry. To submit a year-end gift online to support your local FCA or learn about non-cash ways of giving, visit my.fca.org.

Prayer has power. Through prayer, we change the world. Creating an open place for prayer with my team has led to profound impact. A praying coach is just as powerful as a praying mother. I pray for my players and hope to develop their minds and spirits in addition to their bodies.

WE ASKED COACHES,

"HOW DO YOU LEAD YOUR TEAM TO HAVE THE BIGGEST IMPACT?"

SIMÓN BARINAS

I must come to a place of full surrender to the Lord before I lead others. Only then am I truly sensitive to the Spirit and able to lead by example into all that God has for me and my team.

"HOW DO YOU HELP FCA PURSUE IMPACT?"

MARLISE FLANAGAN

BOARD MEMBER & FORMER SALT COACH ·
WOODLAND, WASH.

FCA provides an incredible vehicle to fulfill the Great Commission—we go to schools, sports fields, gyms, classrooms, stadiums, lunchrooms and more. Coaches and athletes have a natural platform to influence others. I pray for the Holy Spirit to help us reach every coach and athlete in our areas of influence.

RANDY MATTHEWS

DONOR · LITTLE ROCK, ARK.

We all like to invest in something that guarantees a positive return on investment. FCA is one of those investments. My investment is very small compared to the large results. FCA constantly pursues coaches and athletes to impact their lives for eternity. I donate to several organizations, but I am most pleased to support FCA.

NADIA CASTAING

BOARD MEMBER ·
UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI FCA

By collaborating and partnering with local FCA leaders, we advocate for and support their vision. I believe availability is key. Giving our time, talents and treasure makes a real difference. If we approach every interaction and opportunity through the lens of service, generosity multiplies the potential for lasting impact.

NORMAN ISAAC

BOARD CHAIRMAN · HYDERABAD, INDIA

I count it a privilege to support FCA and its quest to see India transformed. Jesus is at work in a mighty way through this ministry. FCA continues to impact through camps, Huddles, coaches ministry and Fields of Faith. We are not only reaching coaches and athletes, but we are helping churches reach their local communities.
